

Democracy demands that more public hearings be held before the FCC votes to change the current guidelines. The needs of the people are ALWAYS served best when we have more choices, more outlets, more access, more options.